

Delegation assessment

This questionnaire will help you assess how well you delegate tasks to your team. Taking each pair of statements in turn, circle the number which is most representative of your attitude and behaviour. 1 and 5 are closest to the different statements, 2 and 4 less close but still reflect your behaviour. 3 is the middle between the two statements. Do you:

	1	T .
Delegate tasks to ease the workload	1 2 3 4 5	Prefer to do the work yourself
Show confidence in staff to complete tasks	1 2 3 4 5	Lack confidence in staff to complete tasks
Allow staff to undertake delegated work in their	1 2 3 4 5	Prefer to check on how staff own way		complete the task
Know everyone in your team well in terms of their	1 2 3 4 5	Not know people in your team well strengths and weaknesses Give clear instructions when delegating	1 2 3 4 5	Find that people refer back to you with questions when you have delegated a task
View delegation as an opportunity to develop	1 2 3 4 5	View delegation as means of getting the individuals		task done
Provide training to inexperienced staff in new skills	1 2 3 4 5	Prefer not to delegate tasks to to undertake a task		inexperienced staff Agree a completion time for the task and review as	1 2 3 4 5	Expect staff to complete the task as soon as appropriate		possible
Tell your staff and other people what authority they	1 2 3 4 5	Neglect to tell staff and other people their have When delegating a task		level of authority
Set standards appropriate to the task	1 2 3 4 5	Set high standards irrespective of the task
Tolerate mistakes, recognising that people learn	1 2 3 4 5	Expect delegated work to be error-free through them
Balance the workload of your staff	1 2 3 4 5	Delegate work to certain individuals in the team more than others
Identify the tasks you should not delegate	1 2 3 4 5	Prefer to delegate as much work as possible
Consider the effects of delegating unpleasant or	1 2 3 4 5	Think that unpleasant tasks are best tedious tasks on the team		delegated Ask for information on your staff's workload and	1 2 3 4 5	Consider that work that you delegate schedules before delegating		should take priority
Give feedback to staff, both positive and negative,	1 2 3 4 5	Prefer not to give immediate feedback when they have completed a task Think about the amount you should delegate to	1 2 3 4 5	Think more about your workload of than your staff in terms their workload and yours		your staff's

How to interpret your score

- 34 or under You delegate tasks well. The balance of your delegated tasks is good. You recognize that delegation provides a learning opportunity for your staff.
- 35 or 69 Your delegation could be improved. Your staff may see you as 'dumping' tasks rather than delegating. You need to recognize that delegation provides an opportunity for you to be more effective as well as to develop your staff. Look back over those statements where you have given high
- 70 to 85. You are either very harsh in self criticism or a very poor delegator. If you are operating at this level, you are probably under considerable pressure and your staff are probably de-motivated and under-achieving